

FACES OF LODO

CARLA PRADIA AND JOY SCUTERO THE BARTH HOTEL

Carla and Joy, who manage the daily activities at the Barth Hotel, are true Faces of LoDo. We may know their residents like Jimmy Vance, David Armstrong, or Robert Hoard. Jimmy scours the neighborhood for cans, David helps keep our streets clean, and Robert is a fixture at friendly local coffee joints, but Carla and Joy run the store and keep everyone happy, healthy, and entertained. They also are the keeper of the Barth Bucks: credits the residents earn by participating in daily activities, and redeemable only at the Barth Country Store for toiletries and treats.

Remarkably, the Barth recently celebrated their 27th year in LoDo, which makes these neighbors among the original pioneers of the District. Senior Housing Options purchased the building when few would venture into what would become the City's only mixed-use historic district. They continue to operate the Barth, offering Carla and Joy and their band of local celebrity residents a vibrant connection to LoDo. The Barth residents return the privilege by enriching LoDo's character, diversity, and community.

THE BARTH HOTEL IS A LOW-INCOME ASSISTED LIVING CENTER AT THE CORNER OF 17TH AND BLAKE IN LODO, AND IS HOME TO 62 LOCAL CELEBRITY RESIDENTS. GET TO KNOW CARLA, JOY AND OTHER LODO DISTRICT MEMBERS. CALL 303-628-5428 FOR MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION.
